Share a memorable experience that reaffirmed your faith or your vocation.

Sister Loretta Schimondle was one of the teachers at St. Michael School. I admired her and I can still picture her on the school steps. I wanted to be like her and like my three Great-Aunts who were all Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity.

What advice would you give someone considering a religious vocation?

For someone considering a Religious Vocation, I would tell them, answer the call God gives you through discernment. Look into different Communities, decide and enter!
