Share a memorable experience that reaffirmed your faith or your vocation.

What advice would you give someone considering a religious vocation?

A vocation to Religious Life is a gift to the Church for others. It is a beautiful life. My life has been filled with abundance through the many persons and experiences who have touched my life. I have always believed that my ministry was to include formation of lay leaders. My greatest joy and privilege has been to witness the growth and development of leadership in the Hispanic Catholic community.
